PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

February 28th, 1939.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 127 of the "Public Utilities Act," being chapter 47 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1938, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following regulation, made by the Public Utilities Commission on the 21st day of February, 1939:—

"PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT."

REGULATION 2.

A Regulation prescribing a Tariff of Fees to be taken for the Use of His Majesty in respect of Applications for Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity.

1. The application fee payable in respect of any application, pursuant to the provisions of the "Public Utilities Act," being chapter 47 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1938, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity in respect of the diverting, developing, pumping, impounding, distributing, or furnishing of water to or for the public or any corporation for compensation shall be based on the maximum quantity of water to be sold by the applicant for the purpose of supplying the service in respect of which the certificate is applied for, and shall be computed at the rates set out in Schedule A.

2. The application fee payable in respect of any application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity in respect of the production, generation, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity to or for the public or any corporation for compensation shall be based on the maximum amount of power expressed in horse-power to be generated or taken delivery of from others for the purpose of supplying the service in respect of which the certificate is applied for, and shall be computed at the rates set out in Schedule A.

3. The said maximum amount of water or power shall be specified in the certificate of public convenience and necessity, and no greater amount shall be sold, generated, or taken delivery of by the applicant without the approval of the Commission. The said approval may be given by amendment of the said certificate.

4. The application fee shall be paid before the application is considered by the Commission. Should an application be withdrawn or permitted by the applicant to lie dormant for six months or more, the fee shall be retained. If the application is refused in whole or in part, such part of the application fee may be refunded to the applicant as seems reasonable to the Commission in the circumstances of the case.

5. The fee payable on any application for the amendment of a certificate of public convenience and necessity shall be one-half of the fee previously paid on the application for the said certificate; provided that such fee shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25); and provided also that if the amendment involves an increase in the amount of water or power allowed by the certificate there shall be paid, in addition, the difference between the fee payable in respect of the amount as amended and that in respect of the amount previously allowed.

6. This regulation may be known and cited as "Regulation 2 of the Public Utilities Commission."

AGRICULTURE.

"BEEF GRADING ACT."

AMENDING REGULATIONS.

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 3 of the "Beef Grading Act," the following amending regulations are made:—

Regulation 5 is amended by striking out the words "No inspector shall grade beef until the beef has been inspected and," and substituting therefor the following: "No inspector shall grade beef unless the animal has been inspected before death and the carcass inspected after death, and unless both inspections have been conducted on premises properly equipped to permit of satisfactory inspection, and unless the carcass is."

Regulation 11 is amended by adding thereto the following words: "and in all cases, unless the letter designating the grade of the beef is as large and as prominent as any figure indicating the price of the beef, and unless the letter designating the grade is repeated as frequently as the price is quoted and is placed in close proximity to the price quoted, so as to link the grade letter with the price quotation."

The regulations are amended by inserting the following as Regulation 12A:—

"12A. No person shall within the area advertise or offer for sale any two or more grades of beef coupled together under one price quotation."

The regulations are further amended by inserting the following as Regulation 12B:—

"12B. Where any person advertises within the area any beef which is cow beef, he shall in the advertisement state that the beef is cow beef by inserting, in letters as prominent as the grade letter, the word 'cow' immediately after the grade letter wherever the grade letter appears in the advertisement."

The regulations are further amended by inserting the following as Regulation 12C:—

"12C. Where any person, by means of streamers or other display advertising, advertises beef for sale within the area he shall cause such advertising to conform in all respects with the provisions relating to advertising contained in these regulations."

The amendments made by these regulations shall come into force at midnight on the 5th day of March, 1939.

Dated this 28th day of February, 1939.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

PARKING REGULATIONS, MOTOR-VEHICLE OFFICE AND MOTOR TESTING GARAGE, VANCOUVER.

NOTICE is hereby given that, by Order in Council No. 214, approved February 21st, 1939, the following regulations have been made, pursuant to section 46 of the "Public Works Act," respecting the parking of motor-vehicles within the grounds of the Motor-vehicle Office and Motor Testing Garage, Vancouver:—

1. These regulations, Nos. 1 to 5, inclusive, shall apply to the use by the public or by any person of the "parking space" and entrances thereto fronting on Georgia Street at the western end of the building, owned by the Provincial Government and known as the "Motor-vehicle Office and Motor Testing Garage, Vancouver"; the said "parking space" is shown cross-hatched in red on "site-plan" attached to this minute.

2. Except as provided in Regulation 3, no person shall park or leave standing any vehicle, whether attended or unattended, upon any part of the "parking space" or entrances thereto referred to in Regulation 1.

3. The Minister of Public Works may cause to be marked or otherwise indicated certain portions of the said "parking space" for use as private parking space for motor-vehicles used by any member of the Provincial Police Force or any employee of the Provincial Public Works Department when on duty, or any portion of said "parking space" which it may be necessary to reserve for the purpose of testing motor-vehicles or drivers of motor-vehicles where such tests are carried out by or under the supervision of the Provincial Police Force.

4. Where any vehicle is parked or left standing upon said "parking space" or entrances thereto in violation of any provision of these regulations, any officer or constable of the Provincial Police Force may remove the vehicle or cause it to be removed therefrom to any street or place where vehicles may lawfully be parked or left standing.

5. Every person who violates any provision of these regulations shall, in addition to all other penalties and provisions to which he may be subject, be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of not less than five dollars ($5) and not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(e.) To erect, construct, maintain, operate, buy, acquire, mortgage, sell, and dispose of steamers, trawlers, fishing-boats, and other craft, and for the purpose of catching, taking, and preserving fish in any port of Canada, and in the waters adjacent thereto, and transportation, selling, and bartering the same:

(f.) To build, lease, buy, acquire, maintain, operate, mortgage, sell, and dispose of canneries, cold-storage plants, buildings, piers, wharves, tramways, and machinery of every kind, or pursuant or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(g.) To purchase, use, construct, and manufacture, and hold, nets, lines, seines, and other appliances and instruments for catching, taking, and preserving fish in any part of Canada and the waters adjacent thereto:

(h.) To construct and equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(i.) To buy, lease, hire, acquire, become possessed of or entitled to, and to sell, mortgage, lease, or let, or otherwise dispose of real estate, foreclose rights and privileges, real and personal property, and patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world where it may be necessary for the Association's business:

(j.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province any concession, licences, leases, rights, or privileges as may be found necessary for the attainment of the objects of the Association, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred upon the Association by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(k.) To lend and invest to its members the money of the Association not immediately required:

(l.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Association, and to secure the repayment of the same, in such manner as the Association may determine:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(n.) To distribute or pay all or any of the moneys deducted or withheld from the proceeds of all or any commodity or commodities handled for any contract-holder or contract-holders, or the proceeds of such moneys, to any person or persons who have held a contract or contracts with the Association, distributing the same on the basis, so far as practicable, or their contribution, either in whole or in part, at such times, on such a basis, and in such a manner, either with or without interest, or to retain the same for such period as the Association may deem advisable, either with or without paying interest thereon, all in the discretion of the Association:

(o.) To amalgamate or enter into partnership with any other co-operative association; to sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the assets of this Association at such time as the Association may deem advisable, and to sell the same for shares and debentures, or securities of any association purchasing the same for cash:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things and all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects. 4091-mh2

To carry on the business of a land company, and in connection therewith to acquire, by purchase, lease, exchange, grant, concession or otherwise, and to hold, subdivide, lay out in building lots, streets, lands, squares, and otherwise to improve, develop, rent, sell, convey, exchange, lease, and otherwise dispose of and generally deal in lands and real estate of all and every kind and description, whether vacant, improved, or otherwise, as also any right, title, or interest therein, as also property of any other kind or description, including personal and movable property, and any rights and privileges that the Company may consider necessary for the purposes of its business:

(b.) To lay out land for building purposes, and to build on, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building on, and otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(c.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(d.) To take and hold mortgages, hypothecs, liens, and charges to secure payment of the purchase price of any part of the Company's property sold by the Company, or any money due to the Company from purchasers, or advances made by the Company to purchasers for building purposes or other improvements:

(e.) To allot any shares of the Company, credited as fully paid or partly paid, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, real or personal, purchased by the Company, or for any other valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(f.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(g.) To carry on a general construction business, including the business of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the "Architects Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, chap. 14, and amending Acts, and subject to the "Engineering Act," R.S.B.C. 1936, chap. 87, and amending Acts:

(h.) The powers in each paragraph hereof shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

(g.) To procure capital, credit, or other assistance for establishing, extending, or reorganizing any enterprise or industry carried on or intended to be carried on by any person, firm, or corporation:

(h.) To carry speculative accounts on margin, and for that purpose to borrow money therefor, and to make use of customers' securities in that connection as may be permitted by the rules, regulations, and customs prevailing on any exchange or market where transactions are executed:

(i.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to underwrite, subscribe for, and acquire by exchange, purchase, or otherwise, and hold, either as principal or agent or absolutely as owner or by way of collateral security or otherwise, and to sell, guarantee the sale of, offer for public subscription, exchange, transfer, assign, or otherwise dispose of or deal in the bonds, debentures, mortgages, or other evidences of indebtedness, stock, shares, or other securities of any Government, governmental agency, taxing body, commission, or municipal or school corporation, or of any banking, public utility, commercial, industrial, or other company or corporation, individual, or association, and, while the owner thereof, to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including all voting rights, if any, with respect thereto:

(j.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of payment of dividends upon shares, guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities or otherwise, any company, corporation, firm, person, business, or undertaking:

(k.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking:

(l.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any foreign country or jurisdiction, and to designate parties therein according to the laws thereof to represent the Company:

(m.) To lend or advance money to such persons and on such security and terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and all persons having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to guarantee the contracts of any such persons or customers:

(n.) To make advances or loans upon the security of any goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, automobiles, and other vehicles, and to purchase or otherwise acquire any chattel mortgage, sale agreement, lien note, or other security upon any such property:

(o.) To acquire, own, lease, hire, discover, locate, prospect for, open, explore, develop, work, improve, maintain, and manage mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, deposits, oil and natural-gas leases, oil and natural-gas wells and deposits, and mining or oil and gas rights of every description, and to dig for, drill for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, pipe, convey, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, oil, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof, or any part thereof or interest therein:

(p.) To take, acquire, and hold as consideration for ores, metals, minerals, oils, petroleum, or gases sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, or other securities of or in any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of the Company hereby incorporated, and to sell and otherwise dispose of the same:

(q.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in accounts receivable, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, hire receipts, chattel mortgages, lien notes, and other securities in respect of the same or any of them; to take any of the said securities or other commercial paper in payment for the sale of any personal property; and to sell, charge, or hypothecate any of the said securities on personal property received in the course of its business:

(r.) To purchase or otherwise acquire from any person or corporation any contracts, agreements, or chattel mortgages, made or entered into with any manufacturer, retailer, dealer, insurance company, guarantee, bond, or surety company, or any other person or corporation, which contracts, agreements, or chattel mortgages, in the opinion of the directors of the Company or of a majority of them, may be deemed desirable to be acquired for the Company, and to pay therefor such consideration as the Company may think fit, including the allotment and issue of shares of the capital stock of the Company, fully paid up and non-assessable, as may be determined by the board of directors of the Company or a majority thereof:

(s.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to investigate, examine, audit, and report on and guarantee the books, standing, prospects, business affairs, and conditions of any person, firm, or corporation, and to investigate, examine, and report on the legality of any title, or the issue of the stock, bonds, or debentures of any corporation authorized by law to make an issue of stock, bonds, or debentures, and to guarantee any seal or signature or act of assignment, sale, or transfer of any shares of stock or other property, real or personal, and to employ solicitors, accountants, and experts for any of such purposes:

(t.) To accept and fulfill as attorneys or agents for the transaction of business, the investment of funds, the collection of loans, rents, interest, dividends, and the issuing, making, handling, and collection of debts, mortgages, debentures, bonds, bills, notes, coupons, and other securities for moneys:

(u.) To acquire for itself or as agent for others, hold, use, improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with property of all kinds and, in particular, concessions, patents, business concerns and undertakings, and to erect, alter, repair, and maintain buildings upon any lands in which the Company may have any interest, either as principal or agent, or upon any other lands; and to deal in building material of all kinds:

(v.) To lease, sell, improve, manufacture, develop, exchange, turn to account, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the properties, rights, or assets of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, including shares, debentures, or securities of any other company or corporation:

(w.) To acquire any such investments as aforesaid by original subscription, tender, participation in syndicates, and otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up or in advance of calls or otherwise; to underwrite or subscribe for the same, conditionally or otherwise, and either with a view to investment or for resale or otherwise, and to vary the investments of the Company; and generally to sell, exchange, and otherwise dispose of, deal with, and turn to account any of the assets of the Company:

(x.) Subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act," to carry on the business of insurance-brokers, and to act as special or general agent of any insurance company:

(y.) In so far as it is not prohibited by the "Companies Act," to transact, undertake, and carry on any business transaction, undertaking, or operation usually transacted, carried on, or undertaken by real-estate agents, contractors, merchants, manufacturers, commission-men, insurance agents, or general agents.

And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate object and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

(h.) To make agreements upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon for public highways, and for the supply of electric light, electric power, telephone service, fire-protection, water, and other services to the inhabitants of the said Lots 131, 391, and 289, and for the inhabitants of all adjoining or nearby land:

(i.) To supply electric light, electric power, telephone service, fire-protection, water, and sewage-disposal works to the inhabitants of the said Lots 131, 391, and 289, and to the inhabitants of all adjoining or nearby land, and to carry on the business of a light, power, electric-supply house, telephone, water, drainage, and sewage-disposal company:

(j.) To provide lands and buildings for public parks, pleasure and recreation grounds, hospitals, cemetery, school buildings, municipal buildings, fire-halls, places of amusement, race-track, public library, pound, waterworks, sewage-works, and dump, and any other service which might be of benefit to or for the welfare of the people living on or near land owned or controlled by the Company, and to own, operate, subsidize, or contract for such services:

(k.) To sell, exchange, or give any property owned by the Company to any municipality or village municipality within whose territorial area the property may be situate:

(l.) To sell, exchange, or give any property owned by the Company to any person, society, or organization:

(m.) To promote objects of a national, patriotic, religious, philanthropic, charitable, artistic, social, or sporting character, and to that end to donate any property of the Company, or to transfer, lease, or give the right of occupation of property of the Company for less than its value or without value:

(n.) To lend money and negotiate loans, and for the purpose of securing payment of money due or accruing due to the Company, to take mortgages of lands and goods, conditional sale agreements, and securities of all kinds and descriptions, or to take no security at all:

(o.) To form, promote, subsidize, take shares or interests in, and assist companies, societies, syndicates, and organizations having objects which, in the opinion of this Company, might be of assistance or benefit to it or to those who seek to serve it:

(p.) To allot shares of this Company, credited as partly or fully paid up and either at par or at a premium, as a whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, for guarantees, or for any other valuable consideration as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To do anything which may be considered necessary, proper, or desirable to improve property owned or operated by the Company, or to render it serviceable or of value:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
